

Come Join The Lyme Art Association For A Summer Solstice Celebration and Silent Auction

*A*s part of the Lyme Art Association's Summer Solstice Celebration...

Over fifty New England artists will be painting in the gardens of the Florence Griswold Museum and on the grounds of the Lyme Art Association from June 14 through June 16. The artists will be working from 1 to 5pm to capture the unique light and shadow of the summer solstice.

Visitors are welcome to watch the artists as they work from models and landscapes throughout the Solstice Festival.

The Summer Solstice Celebration continues with wine, music, and a light buffet supper on the lawn of the Lyme Art Association, Saturday evening, June 19 from 5-8pm. During the celebration, the LAA will hold a silent auction of the art works painted in the gardens of the Florence Griswold Museum. Artists are also donating other framed paintings to the auction.

The Silent Auction bidding will start at 5pm and bidding will progressively close per gallery beginning at 7pm when silent auction winners will be announced and payments in checks or cash will be expected. All proceeds from the Silent Auction, as well as entry tickets, will fund the continuing restoration and preservation of our 83 year old historic art galleries and studio designed by Charles A. Platt, a founding member of the Lyme Art Association.

*You are Cordially Invited to a
Summer Solstice Celebration
And Silent Auction
At the Historic
Lyme Art Association
90 Lyme Street, Old Lyme, CT*

*Wine, light supper buffet & music await you
Saturday, June 19, 5-8pm*

Silent art auction starts at 5pm, last call 7pm with proceeds to continue the restoration of LAA's historic 83 year old building

RSVP June 16, 2004

Cover Art: "Plein Air" by Lisa Horrigan, Oil on Linen, 16" x 20"